

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 288

To support and promote the human rights of Southern Mongolians in the People's Republic of China, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 29, 2025

Mr. MERKLEY (for himself and Mr. SULLIVAN) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To support and promote the human rights of Southern Mongolians in the People's Republic of China, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Southern Mongolian 5 Human Rights Policy Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

8 (1) According to the China Statistical Yearbook
9 for 2021, more than 6,000,000 ethnic Mongolians 10 live in the People's Republic of China, of which some

1 two-thirds live in the Inner Mongolia Autonomous 2 Region, and many others in three prefectures and 3 eight counties designated as autonomous for Mongo-4 lians by the Government of the People's Republic of 5 China.

6 (2) Over the centuries, successive central Chi-7 nese governments have promoted the migration of 8 Chinese people into the area currently administered 9 as the Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region, and 10 today only about 18 percent of the population of the 11 Region is counted as ethnically Mongolian.

12 (3) In 2020, officials in the Inner Mongolia Au-
13 tonomous Region announced a new policy to effec-14 tively replace Mongolian as the principal language of 15 instruction with Chinese, in the subjects of history, 16 politics, and literature, and shut down Bainu, the 17 only Mongolian-language-based social media website
18 based in the country. Beginning in September 2023, 19 schools across the region largely removed Mongolian-20 language instruction from elementary and secondary 21 schools throughout the region. Reports indicate that 22 high school and college entrance exams will be con-23 ducted in Chinese exclusively starting in 2025 and 24 2028, respectively. The People's Republic of China
25 authorities have banned Mongolian language books

1 from bookstores and removed signs in the unique,
2 vertically-written Mongolian script from schools,
3 buildings, streets, and parks.

4 (4) The People’s Republic of China officials
5 launched “patriotic education” campaigns at schools
6 and universities throughout the Inner Mongolia Au-
7 tonomous Region, designed to suppress manifesta-
8 tions of Mongolian identity in favor of the common 9 Chinese national identity” and encourage “all ethnic 10 groups to accept the great mother country, Chinese 11 nationality, Chinese culture, [and the] Chinese Com-12 munist Party.” In response to the new education 13 policy, tens of thousands of Southern Mongolians in 14 the Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region launched
15 protests, in which some 300,000 Southern Mongo-16 lian students boycotted school and teachers went on 17 strike, and some individuals reportedly committed 18 suicide in protest. Security authorities responded 19 harshly by arresting, beating, detaining, jailing, and 20 placing under home confinement some estimated 21 8,000 to 10,000 Southern Mongolians.

22 (5) Chinese authorities now fully control all ac-23 tivities of the Chinggis Khan Mausoleum in the 24 Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region, including the 25 schedule, scale, and ticketing of ritual ceremonies

1 and approval and monitoring of gatherings, denying 2 Southern Mongolians the ability to carry out tradi-3 tional rituals and observances free of government in-4 terference and profiteering. This has broken an 5 eight-century-long memorial tradition at the site, 6 which has served as an historical and cultural rep-
7 resentation of the Mongolian identity.

8 (6) The People's Republic of China policies
9 have undermined the religious heritage of Southern 10 Mongolians, many of whom follow Tibetan Bud-11 dhism, including through the destruction of mon-
12 asteries and temples during the Cultural Revolution, 13 and interference in the ability to choose their own
14 religious leaders. Restrictions on travel and freedom 15 of religion or belief inhibit the ability of Southern 16 Mongolians to affiliate, engage, and communicate
17 with Mongol communities around the world, espe-
18 cially those with cultural, linguistic and religious 19 links to people in the country of Mongolia and the 20 Buryatia, Kamykia, and Tuvan regions of the Rus-21 sian Federation, resulting in a diminution of their 22 common cultural heritage.

23 (7) The People's Republic of China policies
24 have effectively ended the traditional Southern Mon-
25 golian economic livelihood of pastoralism, a key

1 marker of Mongol identity, by forcibly resettling 2 more than 246,000 nomadic households to urban 3 and agricultural areas where Mandarin language
4 and Chinese cultural elements dominate. These poli-
5 cies have cut off Southern Mongolians from their an-6 cestral lands and increased their economic depend-7 ence on the state, eroding their social cohesion. This 8 has led to severe social and psychological impacts, 9 including mental illness and economic deprivation.

10 (8) The environment of the Inner Mongolia Au-11 tonomous Region has degraded under the People's 12 Republic of China policies that have removed no-
13 mads, ending traditional stewardship of grazing
14 lands, and exploited natural resources through min-
15 ing and heavy industry without sufficient stake-
16 holder input from local inhabitants, resulting in air 17 and water pollution and severe health problems 18 among local Southern Mongolians. Bayan Obo, the 19 largest rare earth mine in the world, is the source 20 of toxic waste, including radioactive thorium that 21 has been seeping into groundwater.

22 (9) Southern Mongolian dissidents, activists, 23 writers, bloggers, lawyers, and their family members 24 who have attempted to exercise their freedom of ex-25 pression and defend their legal rights have been de-

1 tained, arrested, imprisoned, and placed under home
2 confinement by the People’s Republic of China au-
3 thorities. Activist Yanjindulam remains under home
4 confinement after being released from prison, artist
5 Ashidaa is still under home confinement, lawyer
6 Huhbulag has been detained multiple times, and dis-
7 sident Almaz has been frequently harassed and de-8 tained by the authorities.

9 (10) Authorities detained rights activist Hada, 10 who promoted self-determination and democracy for 11 Southern Mongolians, in 1995 and sentenced him to 12 15 years in 1996. He was held without legal basis 13 for an additional four years following the expiration 14 of his sentence. Hada was subsequently placed under 15 home confinement until his disappearance in Sep-
16 tember 2020. In 2011, Hada’s wife Xinna, an out-17 spoken critic of human rights violations in Southern 18 Mongolia, was arrested before being sentenced to 19 three years in prison, suspended for five years. Their 20 son Uiles was sentenced at the age of 17 to two 21 years in prison on the basis of multiple fabricated 22 charges. The family’s welfare and whereabouts have 23 been unknown since September 2020.

24 (11) Chinese authorities have subjected South-
25 ern Mongolians to transnational repression. Since

1 2009, at least five Southern Mongolian dissidents in 2 exile have been forcibly returned to China, including 3 from Mongolia. On May 3, 2023, Chinese police offi-
4 cers detained Lhamjab Borjigin, a long-time dis-
5 sident writer and historian, in Ulaanbaatar, Mon-6 golia, and forcibly returned him to China on the 7 same day. Lhamjab Borjigin had escaped from home
8 confinement on March 6, 2023, after he was sen-9 tenced to one year in prison, suspended for two 10 years, for writing a book entitled “China’s Cultural 11 Revolution”.

12 (12) The Congressional-Executive Commission
13 on China reported that “[d]uring the Commission’s 14 2023 reporting year, Chinese Communist Party and 15 government authorities implemented policies that 16 limited the freedom of ethnic minority groups to ex-17 press their cultural and religious identities in con-
18 travention of the PRC Regional Ethnic Autonomy
19 Law and international human rights treaties, includ-20 ing the International Covenant on Civil and Political 21 Rights”.

22 (13) The Government of the People’s Republic 23 of China’s policies have undermined the ability of 24 Southern Mongolians to exercise their rights under 25 international law to safeguard and develop their own

1 language, culture, religion or belief, and economic 2 livelihoods, as part of a deliberate effort to erase 3 their distinct Mongolian culture and Sinicize the 4 Southern Mongolian people.

5 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

6 It is the policy of the United States—

7 (1) to support and promote human rights of 8 Southern Mongolians in the People's Republic of 9 China, including the fundamental freedoms of ex-10 pression, peaceful assembly, and religion or belief, 11 and rights related to arbitrary detention, discrimina-
12 tion, and other abuses;

13 (2) to support the aspirations of the Southern 14 Mongolian people to safeguard their cultural and lin-
15 guistic heritage, including the ability to use and pro-16 mote their own spoken and written language, and 17 protect their traditional pastoralist way of life that 18 they have maintained for thousands of years; and 19 (3) to press the Government of the People's Re-

20 public of China to allow the Southern Mongolian 21 people the ability to enjoy autonomy promised them.

22 SEC. 4. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

23 It is the sense of Congress that—

24 (1) the United States supports the liberty and 25 legitimate aspirations of the Southern Mongolian

1 people to safeguard their cultural and linguistic her-2 itage and practice their traditional way of life with-3 out threat of forced assimilation policies of the Gov-4 ernment of the People’s Republic of China and the 11 ern Mongolians the ability to exercise the au-

15 language;

22 Rights Council to prioritize assessment of the 23 human rights of Southern Mongolians in its re-

25 ance with international human rights law, in-

1 cluding through the Universal Periodic Review
2 process, and to request travel by United Na-3 tions officials to assess conditions of Southern 4 Mongolians in the People's Republic of China;

13 age sites in areas of traditional Mongolian cul-14 ture in the People's Republic of China; and 15 (F) coordinate closely with the inter-16 national community on targeted sanctions and 17 visa restrictions;

18 (4) the United States companies and individ-
19 uals operating in areas designated as autonomous
20 for Mongolians in the People's Republic of China 21 should take steps to ensure that their commercial 22 activities do not contribute to human rights viola-23 tions, undermine the autonomous rights of Southern 24 Mongolians, or contribute to the environmental deg-

1 radation or resettlement of nomads in those areas; 2 and

3 (5) the United States Ambassador to the Peo-4 ple's Republic of China should expeditiously seek to 5 meet with Hada and his family members, as well as
